FULL DAY CITY TOUR

After breakfast, drive to Daphne Sheldrick conservation where they rehabilitate baby elephants and other wildlife. These babies have lost their mothers to poaching, death, injuries, on getting lost in the wild or other tragedies. They are released back into the wild when they are ready. The place is open between 1100hrs and 1200hrs.

Drive to Karen Blixen Museum the former home of Karen Blixen – author of “Out of Africa”. Now a Museum, you may explore the beautiful house and grounds at leisure before proceeding to the Giraffe Centre where the rare Rothschild giraffes are being rehabilitated before being returned to the wild. You will be able to see them at close range, even feeding them. You will have your lunch at the tamarind restaurant located at the Karen Blixen.

Drive to the city for shopping at the city market which is open everyday. The market spreads across quite a range of areas. There's a fish and meat market, flower stalls, fruit and vegetable stalls, Congolese and West African wooden masks and carvings for sale, there's an outdoor market, indoor market and all the usual baskets, wooden and soap stone carvings, jewellery, beaded sandals, kikois, paintings for sale.

Alternatively you can visit Masai Market (operates on specific days only) which is a great Shopping & Place for seeing Handicrafts of the whole Country. The colorful Masai markets sells goods ranging from wooden sculptures, beaded necklaces, batik wall hangings, shoes, soap stone carvings, sisal bags, kikois, textiles and a whole host of other exciting goods. After shopping drive back to your hotel in the evening.

The Masai Market Days of operation;
